

Stephanie Shell

Ridgely, TN

E-Rate has been very helpful to our school system. I use available technology for planning, teaching, and student activities that they really enjoy. In our small area, our students really need to see all the technology they can through school or else they may never know that it is out there for their use!